FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Averhealth Announces Chief Executive Officer Transition
Names Dominique Delagnes as New Chief Executive Officer

RICHMOND, Va. – May 16, 2024 – Averhealth, a leading provider of total test logistics in criminal-justice based drug testing, announced today Mark Johnson will step down as Chief Executive Officer. Dominique Delagnes will succeed him as Chief Executive Officer. Delagnes, a seasoned leader with over 25 years of experience in laboratory management and substance use programs, has served as Averhealth’s Chief Operating Officer for the past decade, overseeing a nationwide team of 500+ employees across Averhealth’s Richmond headquarters, laboratories, and patient care centers.

Her deep industry knowledge and proven track record of success positions her perfectly to lead Averhealth into its next chapter of growth. Delagnes holds her Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration from Boston University with a concentration in Operations Management.

Mark Johnson, Averhealth’s former CEO reflects on his time at the company, sharing “During my year and a half at Averhealth, I enjoyed leading the company through a transition period and I look forward to a new chapter. While at Averhealth, I focused on strengthening commercial execution, increasing profits, and improving organizational health.”

Johnson's focus on strengthening core areas has laid a strong foundation for Averhealth's continued growth as he departs his role as CEO.

“I am thrilled to take the helm at Averhealth,” says Delagnes. “We have a strong foundation and I’m committed to building on it by driving strategic expansion, enhancing the customer experience, and fostering a culture of innovation. With exciting new ventures on the horizon, Averhealth is poised for significant progress. I’m confident that together we will deliver exceptional value to the communities we serve nationwide.”
